

Maureen M. Deskins

Maureen M. Deskins became a member of KNOPIK DESKINS LAW GROUP in May 2009. Ms. Deskins practices in the area of catastrophic personal injury liability, specializing in wrongful death, sexual assault, all manner of premises liability, trucking and motor vehicle accidents, products liability, employment law and other related litigation.

Ms. Deskins received her Bachelor of Science degree magna cum laude from Florida International University in 1994 and her Juris Doctorate in 1997 from the University of Florida.

Prior to graduation, Ms. Deskins accumulated nearly ten years of personal injury liability defense experience as a paralegal. Upon graduation, Ms. Deskins continued in her field of experience and began practicing in personal injury liability defense litigation. For the past 12 years, Ms.

Deskins has litigated and tried all manner of personal injury cases, including wrongful death, catastrophic negligent security issues and large property losses.

Ms. Deskins is licensed to practice in Florida and the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida. Ms. Deskins is a member of the American Bar Association, The Florida Bar, and the Hillsborough County Bar Association. Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Deskins was a member of the Association of Defense Trial Attorneys and was elected by her peers to the national executive council of that organization. She has achieved Advanced Certification through the National Institute of Trial Advocacy. Ms. Deskins is rated "AV" by Martindale-Hubbell – the highest possible legal and ethical rating by the nation's premier attorney rating service.

*“We are absolutely committed to providing the best legal representation available.
We determine our client’s objective and make it our own.”*

Maureen M. Deskins